PROGRAMME >>

The New Alliances for Europe – Polylogue III on Arts Education is a joint effort of all the partners involved.

The first part of the programme is dedicated to discussions with all participants about possibilities, strategies and concrete proposals on how to improve the reach and quality of arts and cultural education in Europe within the coming years. These discussions will be based on a presentation of the outcomes of round-table discussions that were held with different stakeholder-groups since the summer of 2014.

In the second part, the ideas and proposals generated so far will be further developed and refined in smaller working groups.

INRAE and ACEnet will at the same time follow their own agendas during the second part of the programme.

Have a closer look at the programme draft day by day on the left of this page. Further details of the programme, speakers and agendas will be updated and published there in due course.
